Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

We welcomed three seminarians from Saint John Seminary in Brighton to live with me when the pandemic led the Seminary to switch to online learning and place Archdiocesan seminarians in various rectories throughout the Archdiocese. Paul Born, Hien Vu, and Hung Tran arrived on or about March 21. When these arrangements were made, we also agreed to have Paul Born remain with us for eight weeks in the summer as part of his pastoral formation. The battle to contain COVID-19 continues and the Seminary is pleased with the experience Paul, Hien, and Hung are having in Cohasset and Hull. As a result, Paul Born will stay with us as planned, Hung Tran will also remain with us for his eight week summer pastoral placement, Hien Vu will move on to Saint Mary of the Assumption Parish in Brookline for his eight week summer pastoral placement, and Colin McNabb will be joining us. Colin's eight week summer placement is the beginning of a longer two year pastoral placement, often called the "Deacon Assignment," which, God willing, will lead to his diaconate ordination in 2021 and priesthood ordination in 2022. Colin will be with us this summer and next, as well as part-time through the 2020-2021 and 2021-2022 academic years, as he finishes his academic and priestly formation at Saint John Seminary and in these parishes.

This feels a bit like the NFL draft! So, to recap:

Paul Born and Hung Tran
to Cohasset and Hull (eight week Summer 2020 pastoral placement)

Colin McNabb Cohasset and Hull (two year pastoral placement "Deacon Assignment")

Hien Vu to Saint Mary of the Assumption Parish/Brookline (eight week summer 2020 pastoral placement)
